

BEER BARONS WEEKEND

www.christianmoerlein.com

Beer Barons Weekend

Muhlhauser Barn

8558 Beckett Rd. West Chester, Ohio 45069

May 16th from 6 PM – 11PM

May 17th from 11AM- 11PM

May 18th from 12PM-7PM

Admission is free.

Off-site Parking only/free shuttles

The event will focus on Cincinnati's grand brewing history and the direct connection West Chester has with this history, which included the summer homes and farms of Cincinnati's greatest pre-prohibition Beer Barons Moerlein, Windisch, Muhlhauser and Hauck.

- Cincinnati's Wegman Farm will showcase the Christian Moerlein Brewing Company Draft Horse Team and authentic beer delivery carriage.
- The Over-the-Rhine Foundation Memory Project will be capturing the oral and visual history of Over-the-Rhine through first person accounts, photographs, and memorabilia.
- A Beer Stein and Breweriana exhibit and sale
- Local artist Jim Effler, who was commissioned by Christian Moerlein Brewing Company to paint the label artwork of Moerlein Lagers and Ales, will be on hand with the original paintings and to sign commemorative prints.
- A Christian Moerlein Beer Garden tent will feature the popular Moerlein OTR Ale, Moerlein Barbarossa Double Dark Lager and a new Moerlein to be unveiled at the event along with Hudy Delight. A full slate of musical entertainment will be provided in the Moerlein Beer Garden throughout the evenings including Jake Speed and The Freddie's whose music is inspired by Cincinnati folklore history.
- Food will be available for sale onsite at the event by the new Savannah Center at Chappel Crossing
- Parking will be available off-site only at the new Savannah Center located directly across the street from the Muhlhauser Barn at 5533 Chappel Crossing Boulevard with a continuous shuttle running.

A portion of proceeds will benefit The Over-The-Rhine Foundation. The Over-The-Rhine Foundation is a nonprofit organization focused on preserving, enhancing and carrying forward the rich history and culture of Over-the-Rhine through collaboration and partnerships.